

BELFAIR STATE PARK

is a year-round camping park situated on the warm saltwater beaches of Hood Canal. The park features saltwater tide flats, wetlands, saltwater recreation, shellfish harvesting, bird watching and a multi-purpose grass area popular for softball, soccer, football and kite flying. The park has more than 3,000 feet of freshwater shoreline along Big Mission and Little Mission Creek. The park offers interpretive displays on shellfish, water quality and the life cycle of salmon.

The Discover Pass is required for day visits to state parks and access to other state-managed recreation lands. The pass provides access to millions of acres of parks, wildlife areas, trails, natural areas and water-access sites. The annual pass is transferable between two vehicles.

- Annual pass: $30 • One-day pass: $10 (transaction and dealer fees may apply)

The Discover Pass can be purchased online, by phone or in person. For details, visit www.discoverpass.wa.gov or call (866) 320-9933.

Thank you for supporting Washington state recreation lands.

Things to remember

- Camping reservation may be made for May 15 through Sept. 15 by calling (888) CAMPOUT (888-226-7688). Reservations may be made up to 9 months in advance.
- Hours – Park opens at 6:30 a.m. in the summer and 8 a.m. in the winter; closes year-round at dusk. Non-camping visitors must leave the park by dusk. Visitors should park in the parking lot by the registration booth to help eliminate congestion and damage to park grounds.
- Wildlife, plants and all park buildings, signs, tables and other structures are protected; removal or damage of any kind is prohibited. Hunting, feeding of wildlife and gathering firewood on state park property is prohibited. Firewood is available for purchase.
- One camping party is allowed per site. Maximum of eight people per campsite.
- Campsites may not be held for other parties.
- Check-out time is 1 p.m. Check in time is 2:30 p.m. Campers need to check in and register within 30 minutes of arrival.
- One extra vehicle without sleeping accommodations may be parked at campsite for a fee, if it fits entirely within the designated parking area. All extra vehicle parking must be paid for at the park office. Extra overnight parking also is available near the park office.
- Pets must be on a leash no longer than eight-feet-long and under physical control at all times. This includes trail areas and camp sites. Pet owners must clean up after pets on all state park lands. Curb pets' excessive barking.
- Quiet hours are from 10 p.m. to 6:30 a.m.
- Bicycles should be ridden on paved roads only. Please stay off posted walkways and trails. Due to limited visibility, do not ride bikes after dusk.
- Keep valuables and ice chests locked securely and inside vehicle at night.

Overnight accommodations

The park offers 143 campsites, including 45 full utility, eight new cabins (C-1 thru C-8), three hiker/biker sites and a Cascadia Marine Trail campsite. Some sites are grouped together so campers can be nearby each other. Two camp loops close during the winter.

For those who want to enjoy the outdoors with the comforts of home, Belfair State Park offers eight cozy cabins for overnight rental. Each cabin is furnished with a queen-size futon, bunk bed that sleeps three, table with chairs and a small end table. Outside is a picnic table and fire pit with grate. Bathrooms and showers are nearby. All cabins are air conditioned and heated, but visitors should take along blankets and warm clothing as evenings can be cool. Pets are only allowed in cabin C1 with a $15 pet fee per night. Each cabin accommodates up to five guests. Reservations may be made year round online at www.parks.state.wa.us or by calling (888) CAMPOUT or (888)-226-7688.
