WELCOME TO BIRCH BAY STATE PARK

Birch Bay State Park is a unique park, in that it features both saltwater and freshwater shorelines. This 664-acre camping park has 8,255 feet of saltwater shoreline on Birch Bay and 14,923 feet of freshwater shoreline on Terrell Creek. The Terrell Creek Marsh is one of the few remaining saltwater/freshwater estuaries in north Puget Sound.

The park features nearly two miles of beach and great views of the Canadian Gulf Islands and the Cascades Mountains. There is anatural game sanctuary is at the park's north end. The park offers a variety of recreational activities, including wind surfing, boating, fishing, bird watching, crabbing, clamming and hiking. The park is 10 miles south of Blaine, near the Canadian border.
