Discount Pass Program rules for WAC 352-32-251 and WAC 352-32-252

WAC 352-32-251 Limited income senior citizen, disability, and disabled veteran passes

1. Making multiple discounted reservations, including first-come, first-served camping registration, for the same dates will result in a 90-day pass suspension. Discounts are limited to one campsite or moorage site per night. Discounts for double or multi-sites will only receive a discount equal to one standard site.

2. All passes remain the property of Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission. If the pass holder no longer meets residency or eligibility requirements the pass will become invalid and must be turned into a Parks staff member.

3. Two or more reservation no-shows or departing early without notifying staff will result in a 90-day pass suspension.

4. All park rules apply to the pass holder. Repeated park or program rule violations will result in a 90-day suspension or the revocation of the pass.

5. Eviction from state parks due to violating park rules or laws will result in the revocation of the pass.

6. Pass discounts only apply to those listed in sections (1), (2) and (3) of this section. Pass holders are responsible for paying in full for all other fees including but not limited to extra vehicle fee, overnight unattended vehicle fee, dock utility fee, all roofed shelters and vacation houses, group camps, day-use shelters and Sno-Parks.

7. The pass holder must provide the physical pass and their photo ID when requested by Parks staff. Pass holders that do not will be charged full rate. Copies and photographs of a pass will not be accepted. Repeated instances of not showing proof identity and pass holder status will result in a 90-day suspension or the revocation of the pass.

DRAFT

8. Providing false information when applying for or replacing a pass or failing to provide current eligibility documents when requested by a Parks staff member will result in the revocation of the pass.

9. Intimidating, obstructing or assaulting park employees and volunteers or creating a park disturbance as described in WAC 352.32.057 will result in the revocation of the pass.

10. A fee will be collected for all pass replacements. Program eligibility will be verified before a replacement pass is issued.

11. The pass is only valid when used by the pass holder. Allowing other individual use of the pass will result in a 90-day suspension or the revocation of the pass. The pass holder must be present for the entire time a discount is claimed. The pass holder must be the official occupant listed on the camping reservations and must be named as the camper on self-registration forms.

12. Pass benefits are for recreational use only. Pass holders are prohibited from using their benefits to conduct business in a state park or use park facilities for non-recreational purposes. Stay limits for campsites and moorage sites and all other park rules apply to all pass holders.

13. When using a permanent Disabled Parking placard for the Disability discount rate, the camper must show their placard ID card or vehicle registration and photo ID when requested by Parks staff. Campers that do not have a placard ID card or vehicle registration will be charged full rate. Repeated instances of not showing proof will result in the revocation of the Disability discount rate.

14. Any violation of this section is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW and may result in citation and other fees.

DRAFT

WAC 352-32-252 Off-season senior citizen pass—fee

1. Making multiple discounted reservations, including first-come, first-served camping registration, for the same dates will result in a 90-day pass suspension. Discounts are limited to one campsite or moorage site per night. Discounts for double or multi-sites will only receive a discount equal to one standard site.
2. All passes remain the property of Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission. If the pass holder no longer meets residency or eligibility requirements the pass will become invalid and must be turned into a Parks staff member.
3. Two or more reservation no-shows or departing early without notifying staff will result in a 90-day pass suspension.
4. All park rules apply to the pass holder. Repeated park or program rule violations will result in a 90-day suspension or the revocation of the pass.
5. Eviction from state parks due to violating park rules or laws will result in the revocation of the pass.
6. Pass discounts only apply to those listed in sections (1) and (3) of this section. Pass holders are responsible for paying in full for all other fees including but not limited to extra vehicle fee, overnight unattended vehicle fee, dock utility fee, all roofed shelters and vacation houses, group camps, day-use shelters and Sno-Parks.
7. The pass holder must provide the physical pass and their photo ID when requested by Parks staff. Pass holders that do not will be charged full rate. Copies and photographs of a pass will not be accepted. Repeated instances of not showing proof identity and pass holder status will result in a 90-day suspension or the revocation of the pass.
8. Providing false information when applying for or replacing a pass or failing to provide current eligibility documents when requested by a Parks staff member will result in the revocation of the pass.
9. Intimidating, obstructing or assaulting park employees and volunteers or creating a park disturbance as described in WAC 352.32.057 will result in the revocation of the pass.
10. A fee will be collected for all pass replacements. Program eligibility will be verified before a replacement pass is issued.
11. The pass is only valid when used by the pass holder. Allowing other individual use of the pass will result in a 90-day suspension or the revocation of the pass. The pass holder must be present for the entire time a discount is claimed. The pass holder must be named as the official occupant on the reservation and registration form.

DRAFT

12. Pass benefits are for recreational use only. Pass holders are prohibited from using their benefits to conduct business in a state park or use park facilities for non-recreational purposes. Stay limits for campsites and moorage sites and all other park rules apply to all pass holders.
13. There will be a fee for each senior off-season pass. Senior Limited Income Pass holders may purchase the Senior Off-Season Pass at a 50 percent discount.
14. Passes are issued to one individual and are valid for only one off-season period.
15. A surcharge for partial and full utility sites, equal to the utility fee published by state parks, will be charged for each night a senior off-season pass is used.
16. Discounts do not apply to reservations made before purchasing the current season's senior off-season pass.
17. Any violation of this section is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW and may result in citations and other fees.

DRAFT